Dear Mom & Dad,

We anchored here yesterday and have single rooms at this luxury-class hotel for $7 per day. I had hoped to have received a letter from Vickie who was supposed to write to me in care of American Express. We have finished our work and need not stay on the ship until Barcelona. So, we have to go home somewhat earlier than expected. I intend to stay here until I get in touch with her. If she writes and tells me where she is staying, then I can call her and arrange to meet in Paris next Thursday.

Palma is tourist-oriented and there are lots of them. Many are Americans, but there are British and French too. It is sunny and mild, but not warm enough to bathe in the Mediterranean. Today we hiked up to an old castle on a hill in back of the hotel. Tomorrow we are renting a car ($6-$2 a piece) and driving around the island. I am taking many pictures - Jim
